

WELCOME TO THE ESKAN COMMUNITY CLUB

DINNER

Our goal is to ensure each customer has an enjoyable dining experience at the Eskan Community Club. This includes the atmosphere, service and quality of food. The staff will make every effort to achieve this goal for each and every customer and their guests.

Your satisfaction of our performance is important to every staff member. If for any reason you are not satisfied with our service, then please advise the head waiter, the manager or complete a customer comment card which are located at the cash register and entry way. We also appreciate comments when customers are satisfied with service or would like to make recommendations for improving our menu and operations.

The Eskan Community Club belongs to the community and customers we eagerly serve. Your comments and feedback on our performance are necessary to ensure we are continually improving our performance in every aspect of our service and food operations.

Please enjoy your dining experience.
